Moving In!

Jacob Robling

Hello, St. Bart's! I am thrilled to be back with you. As I write this, I am taking a break from unpacking the boxes in my new office, and the excitement is really beginning to set in! Though a lot of you have already gotten the chance to meet and get to know me, we thought it would be good for me to introduce myself a little more thoroughly. So here's a little about me!

As for my interests, I love singing and listening to music, reading, spending time outdoors, and taking walks with my dog to the beach. My wife, Emma, and I often like to try new coffee shops and restaurants and enjoy traveling to different places. Our last adventure, which we just got back from, was to Mexico City.

I was born in Kansas City, Missouri, and grew up in Springfield, Missouri. I enrolled in college as a theatre and music major at Drury University (also in Springfield), but ended up majoring in religion instead, and graduated with a BA in 2018. In high school, I had begun dating Emma by asking her to the prom, and in my last semester of college we got engaged.

Feeling a call to ministry, I applied to study at Westminster Seminary California, a small Presbyterian seminary in Escondido. So after taking a year off for Emma to finish cosmetology school, we drove out to California and got married in June 2019 on Salt Creek Beach in Dana Point, and then moved in at the Seminary. For a while, we attended a Presbyterian church, but I felt increasingly pulled towards the kind of emphasis on liturgy, sacrament, and prayer that I had grown up with, being raised in the Catholic Church. After being handed a Book of Common Prayer by a friend, I realized that The Episcopal Church was exactly what I was looking for! So after discussing it with Emma, we adventured to an Episcopal parish in Carlsbad, where I began an internship and was hired on in 2022. I then began discerning the priesthood with the Diocese of San Diego. While I was doing that, Emma started her own business as a hairstylist, renting a suite in Encinitas.

After graduating seminary in 2023, we moved to Oceanside, where we currently live. Then, this summer, after doing my field education at St. Bart's for the diocese, Bishop Susan gave me the exciting news that St. Bart's was interested in bringing me in to do my curacy! So, here we are, and I am so excited to be joining you—I'll see you Sunday!

Jacob Robling

"Walk in Love" Annual Giving Campaign

We have 16 days left until In-Gathering Weekend (11/23-11/24), the ceremonial close of our 2025 Giving Campaign, and we are just under 50% of our goal. Through Wednesday, November 6, we have 104 pledges totaling $438,838. Our goal is a 15% total increase over last year's actual pledge dollars, or $900,000. Achieving this goal is critical for St. Bart's to reach financial sustainability, to support an additional clergy person, Jacob Robling, and to expand our church and community programs to support our current needs and allow for future growth.

2025 pledges to date:

- Approximately 1/3 are increases over last year of 10%-15%+
- Approximately 1/3 are increases over last year of 5%-10%
- Approximately 1/3 are the same as last year
- $9,100 is from new parishioners

Time is getting short. If you have not yet pledged for 2025, please do so over the next few days and consider increasing your pledge amount by 15% over last year. It's easy to pledge online: Visit stbartschurch.org/give and click the "Pledge now for 2025" button. Or you can put your completed pledge card/letter into the weekly offering basket, or mail it to the church office in the return envelope provided.

If you have already pledged: THANK YOU! If you did not increase your pledge amount over last year and would like to do so now, you can easily do so online, or by contacting anyone on the Giving Campaign Committee.

Every pledge is important!

Blessings and appreciation,

Your 2025 Giving Campaign Committee

Bill Angus, Anne Hand, Judy Macemon, Terry McCune, Joe Snodgrass, Jerry Gray, and Mtr. Nina Bacas

We recently published letters from Senior Warden Jerry Gray and Treasurer Bill Angus asking you to prayerfully consider your pledge. If you missed their letters, you can find them below.

MCAS Miramar: How Can We Engage?

Sunday, November 10, 9 a.m., MPR

Join St. Bart's parishioner Guy Close, Executive Director of Marine Corps Community Services (MCCS) at MCAS Miramar, for a presentation on MCCS and how St. Bart's can help active-duty personnel and veterans.

Strategic Plan Update

Remember the Strategic Plan Committee survey you took in the summer?
Look for a summary of the results in next week's e-newsletter.

Also, SAVE THE DATE: At the Adult Forum on Sunday, November 17, at 9 a.m., the committee will unveil the parish's revised Strategic Plan, which articulates goals for the growth of the church, managing parish resources, and connecting with our community. Come and hear what the future holds for St. Bart's!

Bible Study: Gnosticism: From Nag Hammadi to the Gospel of Judas
Wednesdays, September 11–November 27, 10 a.m.-noon, Zoom

Join Bill Zettinger and Bob Capettini as they conduct a weekly Zoom Bible study based on a DVD series on Gnosticism. Notes will be provided each week.

In the first three centuries after Jesus, there existed various forms of Christianity that were very different from what would later become the Christian orthodoxy that we practice today. Gnostics had a differing view of Christianity. They were seeking direct knowledge of God. They offered salvation from ignorance and fate through knowledge of a higher God, who was greater than the one who created our universe. This higher God sent Jesus, and they claimed that people could have mystical personal contact with that God right now.

For more information or to be added to the Bible study distribution list, please email Bob Capettini.

Behold & Believe

*A Bible Study on the
I Am Statements of Jesus*

COURTNEY DOCTOR
& JOANNA KIMBREL

Wednesday Women's Bible Study

September 18–November 20, 6 p.m.

Church office & Zoom

The fall session of the Wednesday Women's Bible Study began on September 18 and runs through November 20. Participants can meet in the church office or join in via Zoom.

We are currently reading *Behold and Believe: A Bible Study on the "I Am" Statements of Jesus*, by Courtney Doctor and Joanna Kimbrel. This Bible study will help readers understand who Jesus is and why he is important to our lives by exploring the question "Who is Jesus?" through the "I Am" statements in the Gospel of John. Jesus describes himself as the bread of life, the light of the world, the good shepherd, and more. His bold words invite us to behold him—and then to trust him.

Beyond the Nametag: Stories of Our Lives

Not to Be Contained!

by Dan Crane

I was probably the child of hell for my parents. I was inquisitive, and a bit of a wanderer. I was born in Belfast, Northern Ireland, where my father was stationed during WWII. I spent my first few years in rural upstate New York.

My first story takes place in the middle of winter. Early one morning, my parents received a phone call where the neighbor asked, “Do you know where your son is?”

“Yes, he is here.”

“No, he’s with us, warming by the stove. We found him playing in the creek.”

I was a toddler in diapers.

My parents literally had to keep moving the lock on the door upward to keep me in!

At that time, my father was a carpenter. One day when I was about four years old, I found my dad's power saw. I took it out of the case, plugged it in, and pulled the trigger—it took off across the room, cutting a big swath of carpet and wood! I was putting it back in the case as my wide-eyed parents came downstairs.

Around age seven years, we moved to a California subdivision where they were still building homes and digging the holes for septic tanks. My mother told me to stay away from those holes, but one morning I got up and wandered down the street. The holes were covered with long planks, just waiting to be walked on. When I did that, they gave way and I fell 20 feet. A neighbor heard me yelling and, luckily, pulled me up with a garden hose.

I still love wandering, particularly the Sierras, the Shasta-Trinity area, and the West in general.

Rector's comment: May your Guardian Angel continue to follow you!

New Sacred Ground Circle Forming

12-session series starting Wednesday, November 20, 3-5 p.m., Zoom

Sacred Ground is The Episcopal Church's free dialogue series on race, racism, and faith, built around a powerful online curriculum of documentary films and readings that focus on Indigenous, Black, Latino/Latina, and Asian/Pacific American histories as they intersect with European American histories. The series provides an opportunity to have difficult but respectful and transformative conversations.

A new EDSB-wide Sacred Ground circle (discussion group) will be starting on Wednesday, November 20. The circle will be limited to 8-12 individuals and will meet for 12 sessions roughly every two weeks—same day and time.

If you have questions or need further information, contact Jill Henderson.
